ACCOMODATION, TRANSPORTS AND FORMALITIES

We offer participants a very competitively priced package including flight and hotel as well as transfers from the airport to the hotel. For internal flights, each participant will have to take care of his reservation directly via the airline's website. More information will follow. For organizational facilities, we encourage members to take advantage of this package. We will not be able to ensure the various transfers for companies taking their flight on other dates or choosing other hotels. In addition, all departures from the delegation to the appointments will be from the hotels we have chosen.

We would also like to mention that companies should not be afraid of sending female delegates and that on the contrary, it could be an asset in meetings with local actors!
