GO INTERNATIONAL

Let's Talk Public Procurement: Opportunities & Challenges

29 October 2026

Round Table Discussion
Let's Talk Public Procurement: Opportunities & Challenges

- 29 October 2026 -

Programme

10h00	Welcome of the participants
10h30	Welcome words Amrita Singh, Client Services Coordinator, International Affairs, Chamber of Commerce
10h35	Public tenders with EU & International Institutions: Opportunities and Insights Tour de table & presentations of the EU and International Institutions World Bank • Michael Pryor, Consultant, Operations Policy and Country Services Office for Infrastructure and Logistics in Luxembourg (OIL): • Dragos Plamadeala, Finance & Contract Management – OIL.06, Acting Head of Sector • Juan Antonio Duran Blazquez, Finance & Contract Management – OIL.06, GPP & SPP Helpdesk Officer for Luxembourg and Grange, EMAS Responsible for OIL.06, Responsible for Alternative Advertising in Procurement Procedures Architect (M.Arch.) — Building & Urban Planning NATO Support and Procurement Agency (NSPA) • Christian Gronnerod, Procurement Division Chief - PP1 – LCM
10h55	Round table – Exchange on the experience of companies in public tenders with EU and International Institutions Public tenders pulse check – Live participant poll Moderated discussion between participants and EU & International institutions All participants are invited to share their experience and challenges when bidding for European and International Institutions.

Version of: 23.10.2026

GO INTERNATIONAL

Let's Talk Public Procurement: Opportunities & Challenges

29 October 2026

11h40	Navigating Public Tenders: Tailored support with the Tender Alert Service of the Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce Thomas Brice, Junior Advisor, International Affairs, Chamber of Commerce
12h00	Conclusions & closing of the round table discussion
12h05	Networking lunch
13h30	End of the event

Moderation by: Laura Ambrogio, Senior Advisor, International Affairs, Chamber of Commerce

Version of: 23.10.2026